

Spice up your winter with history classes!

Back by popular demand—
Civil War
Stories! Read letters written by friends of the Florida family,
see Will Hatch's
Bible that he carried
during his service,
and learn about the
vital role our Wright
County soldiers played throughout the conflict.
Class will be held
April 10 at 10 a.m.

Photography and historic cameras January 9, 10 a.m.

Film? Emulsion? Enlargers? In this age of digital photography, dark-rooms are becoming obsolete. Begin at the beginning and learn about pin hole cameras, glass plate negatives, and Mr. Kodak himself. Tintypes and Daguerreotypes from the RAHS collection will be available to view, as well as some antique cameras. This class will also explain the modern camera and proper composition of a portrait image.

American Legion February 20, 10 a.m.

When the American Legion of Rockford disbanded, the members donated the Post's scrapbooks, charter, and artifacts to the RAHS. During this class, we will look into the trunk once more and recall the history of our local military and their organization.

How to research buildings March 20, 10 a.m.

Do you have a particular interest in a Rockford building? Do you own a home that you would like to know more about? Are you curious how to uncover information in land titles and deeds? Bring the information you have and we'll help you find the rest you want to know!

The Ames-Florida-Stork House is a non-profit, historical home located on Bridge Street, between CR 50 and Main Street, in downtown Rockford. Please call 763-477-5383 or visit our website, www.rockfordmnhistory.org for information regarding tours and future programs.

Spice up your winter with history classes!

Back by popular demand—
Civil War
Stories! Read letters written by friends of
the Florida family,
see Will Hatch's
Bible that he carried
during his service,
and learn about the
vital role our Wright
County soldiers
played throughout the
conflict.
Class will be held
April 10 at 10 a.m.

Photography and historic cameras January 9, 10 a.m.

Film? Emulsion? Enlargers? In this age of digital photography, dark-rooms are becoming obsolete. Begin at the beginning and learn about pin hole cameras, glass plate negatives, and Mr. Kodak himself. Tintypes and Daguerreotypes from the RAHS collection will be available to view, as well as some antique cameras. This class will also explain the modern camera and proper composition of a portrait image.

American Legion February 20, 10 a.m.

When the American Legion of Rockford disbanded, the members donated the Post's scrapbooks, charter, and artifacts to the RAHS. During this class, we will look into the trunk once more and recall the history of our local military and their organization.

How to research buildings March 20, 10 a.m.

Do you have a particular interest in a Rockford building? Do you own a home that you would like to know more about? Are you curious how to uncover information in land titles and deeds? Bring the information you have and we'll help you find the rest you want to know!

The Ames-Florida-Stork House is a non-profit, historical home located on Bridge Street, between CR 50 and Main Street, in downtown Rockford. Please call 763-477-5383 or visit our website, www.rockfordmnhistory.org for information regarding tours and future programs.